1 I, Carla A. Peak, declare as follows:

2 1. I am a Vice President of Legal Notification Services at KCC, LLC
3 ("KCC") located at 3301 Kerner Boulevard, San Rafael, California 94901.

4 2. I am over the age of 21. The matters described in this Declaration are 5 based upon my own personal knowledge, as well as information received from the 6 parties. The opinions and recommendations made herein are based on my training and 7 experience.

8 3. This Declaration describes my experience, as well as KCC's experience.
9 It also describes the proposed notice plan (the "Notice Plan" or "Notice Program")
10 designed for this class action settlement, including why I believe it will be effective 11 and will constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances of this 12 Settlement, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B) ("Rule 23").

13 EXPERIENCE

14 4. KCC is a leading class action administration firm that provides 15 comprehensive class action services, including legal notification, email and postal 16 mailing campaign implementation, website design, call center support, class member 17 data management, claims processing, check and voucher disbursements, tax reporting, 18 settlement fund escrow and reporting, and other related services critical to the 19 effective administration of class action settlements. With more than 30 years of 20 industry experience,¹ KCC has developed efficient, secure and cost-effective methods
21 to properly handle the voluminous data and mailings associated with the noticing, 22 claims processing and disbursement requirements of these matters to ensure the 23 orderly and fair treatment of class members and all parties in interest. Since 1984,
24 KCC has been retained to administer more than 6,000 class actions and distributed 25 settlement payments totaling well over $20 billion in assets.

26
27

28 ¹ KCC acquired Gilardi & Co. LLC in 2015. This Declaration combines the class action notice and administration experience of both firms.

1 5. KCC has administered class action administrations for such defendants as 2 HP-Compaq, LensCrafters, United Parcel Service, Ford, Mitsubishi, Nissan,
3 Whirlpool, ATI Video Cards, and Twentieth Century Fox. Further, KCC has been
4 retained as the administrator in a variety of consumer matters. Some consumer case
5 examples which KCC has been involved with include: Eubank v. Pella Corporation, 6 No. 1:06-12-04481 (N.D. Ill.) (home windows); Rikos v. The Procter & Gamble Co.
7 No. 11-cv-00226 (S.D. Ohio) (Align probiotics); In Re: Rust-Oleum Restore
8 Marketing, Sales Practices and Products Liability Litigation, No. 1:15-cv-01364
9 (N.D. Ill.) (deck and concrete products); In re Sears, Roebuck and Co. Front-Loading
10 Washer Products Liability Litigation, No. 1:06-cv-07023 (N.D. Ill.) (front-loading
11 washing machines); Lerma v. Schiff Nutrition International, Inc., No. 1:13-CV-07747
12 (N.D. Ill.) (glucosamine supplement); Cobb v. BSH Home Appliances Corp., No.
13 8:10-CV-0711 (C.D. Cal.) (clothes washing machines); Roberts v. Electrolux Home
14 Products, Inc., No. 8:12-CV-01644 (C.D. Cal.) (clothes dryers); Cappalli v. BJ's
15 Wholesale Club, Inc., No. 1:10-CV-00407 (D. R.I.) (club memberships); Stroud v.
16 eMachines, Inc., No. CJ-2003-968 L (D. Ct. Cleveland Cnty, Okla.) (personal 17 computers); and Shames v. The Hertz Corporation, No. 07cv2174-MMA (S.D. Cal.)
18 (rental car fees).

19 6. I have personally been involved in many of the largest and most 20 significant cases, including In re Anthem, Inc. Data Breach Litigation, No. 5:15-md-
21 02617 (N.D. Cal.), a national data breach class action involving approximately 79
22 million people who had personally identifiable information data stored on Anthem's 23 databases; In re: Skelaxin (Metaxalone) Antitrust Litigation, No. 1:12-md-02343 (E.D.
24 Tenn.), a multi-state antitrust settlement involving both third party payors and 25 consumers that purchased or paid for the brand and generic version of the prescription
26 drug metaxalone; Chambers v. Whirlpool Corporation, No. 8:11-cv-01733 (C.D.
27 Cal.), a national product defect case involving class members who experienced or may 28 experience the overheating of an automatic dishwasher control board; In re Trans

1 Union Corp. Privacy Litigation, MDL No. 1350 (N.D. Ill.), perhaps the largest 2 discretionary class action notice campaign involving virtually every adult in the 3 United States and informing them about their rights in the $75 million data breach 4 settlement; and In re Residential Schools Litigation, No. 00-CV-192059 (Ont. S.C.J.),
5 the largest and most complex class action in Canadian history incorporating a 6 groundbreaking notice program to disparate, remote aboriginal persons qualified to 7 receive benefits in the multi-billion dollar settlement.

8 7. In forming my opinions, I draw from my in-depth class action case
9 experience. I have worked in the class action notification field for over 15 years.
10 During that time, I have been involved in all aspects in the design and implementation
11 of class action notice planning, as well as the drafting of plain language notice
12 documents that satisfy the requirements of Rule 23 and adhere to the guidelines set
13 forth in the Manual for Complex Litigation, Fourth and by the Federal Judicial Center
14 (“FJC”).

15 8. I have been involved with hundreds of cases, including the dissemination 16 of notice around the globe in more than 35 languages. My c.v., attached as Exhibit 1, 17 contains numerous judicial comments citing cases I have worked on, as well as 18 articles I have written and speaking engagements where I have discussed the adequacy 19 and design of legal notice efforts.

NOTICE PLAN OVERVIEW

21 9. The proposed Notice Program utilizes individual notice to identifiable
22 Settlement Class Members and paid notice in well-read consumer magazines, trade
23 journals, and on a variety of websites, including Facebook, to effectively reach the 24 Settlement Class. The Notice Program is expected to reach approximately 70% of

1 likely Settlement Class Members via the paid media effort alone.² Reach will be
2 further enhanced by the individual notice effort.

3 10. The expected reach of the Notice Program is consistent with other
4 effective court-approved settlement notice programs and is designed to meet due
5 process requirements. The FJC’s Judges’ Class Action Notice and Claims Process
6 Checklist and Plain Language Guide (the “FJC Checklist”) considers 70-95% reach 7 among class members to be a “high percentage” and reasonable.

NOTICE PROGRAM DETAILS

Class Definition

10 11. The Settlement Class is defined as: all Persons who, between 11 November 1, 2005 and May 1, 2008, purchased and have not yet received a full refund
12 for their Morning Song Bird Food purchases. The following entities and individuals
13 are excluded from the Settlement Class: (a) Defendants and their immediate families, 14 the officers, directors and affiliates of Defendants, at all relevant times, members of 15 their immediate families and their legal representatives, heirs, successors or assigns,
16 and any entity in which Defendants have or had a controlling interest; (b) distributors,
17 retailers, and other resellers of Morning Song Bird Food; (c) judicial officers and their 18 immediate family members and associated court staff assigned to this case; and (d) all
19 those otherwise in the Settlement Class who timely and properly exclude themselves
20 from the Settlement Class as provided in the Stipulation of Class Action Settlement.

Individual Notice

22 12. KCC will provide direct notice to every individual who, based on 23 Retailer Records may be Settlement Class Members and for whom contact 24 information is set forth in those Retailer Records, as well as to any individuals who

²⁷ The reach or net reach of a notice program is defined as the percentage of a class ²⁸ that was exposed to a notice net of any duplication among people who may have been exposed more than once.

1 may be Settlement Class Members and for whom Non-Retailer-Identified contact
2 information is available.

3 13. Email Notice will be provided to all Non-Retailer-Identified email
4 addresses on file. KCC will perform a SPAM cleanse on the email addresses and then
5 deliver the Summary Notice to those Non-Retailer-Identified Settlement Class
6 Members with a valid email address. The Email Notice content will be the Summary
7 Notice included in the body of the email, rather than as an attachment, to avoid spam
8 filters and improve deliverability; attaching the notice will cause a significant number 9 of emails to be blocked by service providers. The Email Notice will contain a link to 10 the settlement website.

11 14. The email campaign will return data regarding the number of emails
12 successfully delivered, email open-rates, and all email that is returned undeliverable 13 (“Initial Bouncebacks”). Many of the Initial Bouncebacks are temporary in nature, and 14 consist primarily of those that: (1) are blocked by Internet Service Providers (ISPs);
15 (2) result from filled inboxes on the targets’ computers; or (3) result from some 16 temporary technical difficulties. These three categories of bouncebacks (“Non-Fatal 17 Bouncebacks”) account for approximately 10-15% of all emails that aren’t sent and, in 18 other cases and tests, KCC has found that approximately 85% of these emails could be 19 deliverable if they were re-sent. Therefore, KCC will re-attempt delivery of the Email
20 Notice to Settlement Class Members subject to Non-Fatal Bouncebacks.

21 15. For any Non-Retailer-Identified Settlement Class Members whose email
22 resulted in a bounceback, KCC will send a Notice and Claim Form via United States
23 Postal Service (USPS), provided a physical address has been successfully identified.³

24 16. In addition, KCC will send a Notice and Claim Form via USPS to those 25 Non-Retailer-Identified Settlement Class Members for whom an email address is not 26 available.

27

28 ³ Copies of the Publication Notice, Long Form Notice, and Claim Form are attached to the parties’ Stipulation of Settlement as Exhibits G, D, and A, respectively.

1 17. KCC will send a Notice, Retailer-Identified Refund Notice, Correction
2 Form, and Claim Form to all Retailer-Identified Settlement Class Members via
3 USPS.⁴

4 18. Prior to mailing, all postal addresses will be checked against the National
5 Change of Address (NCOA)⁵ database maintained by USPS; certified via the Coding
6 Accuracy Support System (CASS);⁶ and verified through Delivery Point Validation
7 (DPV).⁷

8 19. Notices returned by USPS as undeliverable will be re-mailed to any 9 address available through postal service forwarding order information. For any 10 returned mailing that does not contain an expired forwarding order with a new address
11 indicated, KCC will conduct further address searches using credit and other public
12 source databases to attempt to locate new addresses, and will re-mail these notices
13 where possible.

Consumer Publications

15 20. In addition to the individual notice efforts above, KCC will place the 16 Publication Notice as a half-page Summary Notice in National Geographic and as a 17 third-page Summary Notice in Birds & Blooms and People magazines. The 18 Publication Notice will appear in each publication's nationwide print edition as well
19 as their online digital replicas.

²¹ ⁴ Copies of the Retailer-Identified Refund Notice and Correction Form are attached
²² to the parties' Stipulation of Settlement as Exhibits H and B, respectively.

⁵ The NCOA database contains records of all permanent change of address submissions received by the USPS for the last four years. The USPS makes this data available to mailing firms and lists submitted to it are automatically updated with any reported move based on a comparison with the person's name and last known address.

²⁵ ⁶ Coding Accurate Support System is a certification system used by the USPS to ensure the quality of ZIP⁺⁴ coding systems.

⁷ Records that are ZIP+4 coded are then sent through Delivery Point Validation to verify the address and identify Commercial Mail Receiving Agencies. DPV verifies the accuracy of addresses and reports exactly what is wrong with incorrect addresses.

1 21. These publications were selected using GfK MediaMark Research &
 2 Intelligence, LLC (MRI)⁸ data. MRI data indicates that People will reach 18.2% of 3 likely Settlement Class Members, National Geographic will reach 18.0% of likely 4 Settlement Class Members, and Birds & Blooms will reach 5.6%.

5 22. The notice placements will be tracked to ensure that they appear exactly
 6 as planned, as well as meet our high standards in terms of quality and positioning.

Trade Publications

8 23. The Publication Notice will also appear in the print editions of two trade
 9 publications targeting veterinarians. KCC will place the Publication Notice as a third-
 10 page Summary Notice in the Journal of the American Veterinary Medical Association
 11 (JAVMA) and as a fifth-page Summary Notice in Veterinary Practice News.

Internet Advertising

13 24. KCC will implement an internet media effort consisting of banner
 14 advertising. Approximately 112.5 million internet banner advertisements will be 15 purchased and distributed over desktop and mobile devices via the Google Display
 16 Network, Yahoo! and Conversant ad networks, as well as the social media site
 17 Facebook.

18 25. KCC analyzed MRI data concerning internet usage and audience
 19 demographics of likely Settlement Class Members and verified the effectiveness of 20 the digital media campaign across the Google Display Network, Yahoo!, Conversant, 21

23 8 GfK MRI is a nationally accredited research firm that provides consumer 24 demographics, product and brand usage, and audience/exposure in all forms of 25 advertising media. Established in 1979, MRI measures the usage of nearly 6,500
 26 product and service brands across 600 categories, along with readership of hundreds 27 of magazines and newspapers, internet usage, television viewership, national and local 28 radio listening, yellow page usage, and out-of-home exposure. Based on a yearly face-to-face interview of 26,000 consumers in their homes, MRI's Survey of the American Consumer™ is the primary source of audience data for the U.S. consumer magazine industry and the most comprehensive and reliable source of multi-media audience data available.

1 and Facebook using comScore, Inc. (comScore)⁹ data. According to MRI data, 89.4%
2 of likely Settlement Class Members have access to the internet at home using a 3 computer, 86.9% have looked at or used the internet in the last 30 days, 81.2% have 4 used Google in the last 30 days, and 61.8% have used Facebook. Using comScore, we 5 have determined the total number of internet impressions necessary to extend reach
6 among likely Settlement Class Members.

Settlement Website

8 26. KCC will establish and maintain a case specific website to allow 9 Settlement Class Members to obtain additional information and documents about the 10 Settlement. The Settlement Website will allow users to read, download, and print the 11 operative Complaint, Stipulation of Settlement, Preliminary Approval Order, and 12 Long-Form Notice and Claim Form, as well as other important documents and 13 deadlines. Settlement Class Members will also be able to review a list of Frequently 14 Asked Questions and Answers and file a claim online. The website address will be 15 displayed in the Long-Form Notice and Publication Notice, as well as accessible
16 through a hyperlink embedded in the Email Notice and internet notices.

Toll-Free Telephone Number

18 27. KCC will establish and host a case specific toll-free number to allow 19 Settlement Class Members to learn more about the Settlement in the form of pre-
20 recorded answers to frequently-asked questions. It will also allow Settlement Class
21 Members to request to have a Long-Form Notice mailed directly to them. The toll-free
22 number will be displayed in the Email Notice, Long-Form Notice, Publication Notice,
23 and on the Settlement Website.

⁹ comScore, Inc. is a leading cross-platform measurement and analytics company that precisely measures audiences, brands and consumer behavior everywhere, capturing 1.9 trillion global interactions monthly. comScore's proprietary digital audience measurement methodology allows marketers to calculate audience reach in a manner not affected by variables such as cookie deletion and cookie blocking/rejection, allowing these audiences to be reached more effectively. comScore operates in more than 75 countries, serving over 3,200 clients worldwide.

Settlement P.O. Box

2 28. KCC will establish and monitor a settlement mailbox where Settlement
3 Class Members may submit hard copy Claim Forms, exclusion requests, objections,
4 and other case correspondence.

CLAIMS PROCESS

6 29. Retailer-Identified Settlement Class Members will receive an automatic 7 payment. Retailer-Identified Settlement Class Members will be provided with an 8 opportunity to review the Retailer-Identified Refund Notice and return a Correction
9 Form with corrections to any incorrect name or contact information provided and 10 information to identify the correct recipient and address for the Retailer-Identified 11 Refund.

12 30. To obtain a settlement payment, Non-Retailer-Identified Settlement Class
13 Members must submit a Claim Form online or by mail. The individual notices include 14 a unique identifier or “Claim ID” that may be used by the Settlement Class Member to 15 expedite claims filing by “pre-populating” class member information that Class
16 Counsel obtained during discovery. The Claim ID will be provided on the Claim Form
17 included in each notice packet and included in the Email Notice. Non-Retailer-
18 Identified Settlement Class Members who wish to file a claim online may simply enter 19 their Claim ID to view and submit a Claim Form that has been automatically pre-20 populated with information corresponding to their unique identifier.

31. Any Settlement Class Member with Proof of Purchase may submit a Claim Form for a refund to the extent not included in a Retailer-Identified Refund.

23 32. Any Settlement Class Member without Proof of Purchase may submit a
24 Claim Form for a refund to the extent not included in a Retailer-Identified Refund.

25 33. The Retailer-Identified Refund Correction Form seeks updates to 26 information necessary to process Retailer-Identified Refunds, such as name and 27 mailing address.

1 34. The Claim Form for Proof of Purchase Refunds or Claim Form Refunds
2 seeks only information needed to validate and process Settlement Class Member
3 claims. For example, first and last name, email address, telephone number, postal
4 address, the type of claim being filed, proof of purchase, if applicable, or approximate
5 date, location, quantity and amount of purchases, and their signature as verification
6 that all information provided on the Claim Form is accurate. If a claim is denied due 7 to lack of signature or other required information, the Settlement Class Member will 8 be notified and provided with an opportunity to correct the claim.

9 35. The Claim Form has been designed to embody the recommendations set 10 forth in the FJC Checklist. For example, it only requires necessary information, it is 11 short, simple and clearly worded, it includes an online submission option and it does 12 not contain any onerous features. In cases such as this, the claims process helps to 13 deter fraud and ensure that claimants are in fact Settlement Class Members.

14 36. KCC will process all Claim Forms in accordance with the Stipulation of 15 Settlement.

NOTICE PLAN COSTS

17 37. KCC estimates that the notice and settlement administration will cost 18 between $1,296,320 and $1,429,500. KCC's estimated fees and charges are based on 19 certain information provided to KCC by the parties as well as significant 20 assumptions. Accordingly, the estimate is not intended to limit KCC's actual fees and 21 charges, which may be less or more than estimated due to the scope of actual services
22 or changes to the underlying facts or assumptions. If notice and settlement
23 administration costs do not reach these levels, the remaining funds will be distributed 24 to Settlement Class Members on a pro rata basis.

25 38. These costs are based upon the scope of work currently contemplated, 26 and include tasks such as data intake and processing, the email list cleanse and 27 distribution, printing and mailing the Long-Form Notice, Claim Form, Retailer-
28 Refund Notice, and Correction Form, postage, address searches, re-mailing notice

1 packets to updated and/or newly located addresses, publishing the notice in the 2 consumer magazines and trade journals, internet advertising, declaration in support of 3 preliminary approval, weekly case reporting, setting up and maintaining the 4 Settlement Website, processing exclusion requests, automated call support including 5 script drafting and management, monthly maintenance fees, updates, listening to,
6 transcribing and responding to voicemails, processing claims filed, curing deficient
7 claims, staff hours, claim calculations, disbursements and handling, and staff hours.

8 39. The Stipulation of Settlement provides that settlement administration
9 costs will be paid from the Settlement Fund.

NOTICE PLAN ANALYSIS

11 40. The Notice Program is expected to effectively reach approximately 70%
12 of Settlement Class Members via the media notice effort alone. Coverage will be 13 further extended via the individual notice effort.

14 41. The Notice Plan will deliver “noticeable” Notices to capture Settlement
15 Class Members’ attention and provide them with the information necessary to 16 understand their rights and options.

17 42. The Notice Plan and notice documents adhere to the guidelines set forth
18 in the FJC Checklist. The FJC Checklist contains four “Major Checkpoints.” All of 19 these checkpoints have been met. For example:

22 (b) The notices will come to the attention of the Settlement Class and 23 have been designed using page-layout techniques to command attention.

24 (c) The notices are informative—they include all required information—
25 and are written in clear, concise, easily understood language.

26 (d) Settlement Class Members' rights and options are easy to act upon.
27 There are no unnecessary hurdles that would make responding difficult.

1 43. At the conclusion of the Notice Plan, KCC will provide a final report
2 verifying its adequacy and effective implementation.

CONCLUSION

4 44. In my opinion, the Notice Plan proposed for this case is consistent with 5 other effective settlement notice programs. It is the best notice practicable and meets
6 the desire to actually inform due process communications standard of Mullane v. Cent.
7 Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 315 (1950). It provides the same reach and 8 frequency evidence that courts have approved and that has withstood appellate 9 scrutiny, other expert critiques, as well as collateral review. The Notice Plan and 10 notice documents are consistent with the guidelines set forth in Rule 23, the Manual
11 for Complex Litigation, Fourth, and the FJC Checklist.

I, Carla A. Peak, declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed this 7th day of December 2018, at Sellersville, Pennsylvania.

Manual Notice List

The following is the list of attorneys who are not on the list to receive e-mail notices for this case (who therefore require manual noticing). Judicial Recognition

Honorable Lucy H. Koh, In re Anthem, Inc. Data Breach Litigation (August 15, 2018) No. 5:15-md-02617 (N.D. Cal):

The Court finds that the Notice Plan has been fully implemented in compliance with this Court's Order, ECF No. 903, and complies with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(B). Notice was sent by mail and email, published in two magazines, and advertised online. The various forms of Notice, which were reviewed and approved by this Court, provided clear descriptions of who is a member of the Class and Settlement Class Members' rights and options under the Settlement. The Notices explained the conduct at issue in the litigation, how to receive money from the Settlement, how to opt out of the Settlement, how to object to the Settlement, how to obtain copies of relevant papers filed in the case, and how to contact Class Counsel and the Settlement Administrator.

Judge John Bailey, In re: Monitronics International, Inc., Telephone Consumer Protection Act Litigation, (June 12, 2018) No. 1:13-md-02493 (N.D. W.Va.)(overruling objections and ruling in favor of the notice plan):

The Court finds that the notices disseminated pursuant to the Notice Plan fully and accurately informed members of the Settlement Class of all material elements of the Settlement and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and fully satisfied the requirements of due process, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, and all applicable law...The Notice Plan here complies with the courtapproved plan and fully apprised the Settlement Class of all material terms and their rights. In addition, the notices provided three telephone numbers for Settlement Class members to call if they had questions about the settlement.

Judge Timothy S. Black, Rikos v. The Procter & Gamble Company, (April 30, 2018) No. 1:11-cv-00226 (S.D. Ohio):

The Court directed that Class Notice be given to Settlement Class Members pursuant to the notice program proposed by the parties and approved by the Court. In accordance with the Court's Preliminary Approval Order and the Court-appointed notice program, the Settlement Administrator caused the Class Notice to be disseminated as ordered. The Class Notice advised Settlement Class Members of the terms of the Settlement Agreement; the Final Approval Hearing, and their right to appear at such hearing; their rights to remain in, or opt out of, the Settlement Class and to object to the Settlement Agreement; procedures for exercising such rights; and the binding effect of this Judgment, whether favorable or unfavorable, to the Settlement Class. The distribution of the Class Notice constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and fully satisfied the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, the requirements of due process, 28 U.S.C. § 1715, and any other applicable law.

Honorable Amy Totenberg, Barrow v. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., (March 16, 2018) No. 1:16-cv-03577 (N.D. Ga.):

The Notice Plan, in form, method and content, complies with the requirements of Rule 23 and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process, and constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances.

Honorable Ann I. Jones, Eck v. City of Los Angeles, (February 21, 2018) No. BC577028 (Super. Ct. Cal.):

Class Notice to the Settlement Class was provided in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order and satisfied the requirements of due process, California Code of Civil Procedure section 382 and Rule 3.766 of the California Rules of Court and (a) provided the best notice practicable, and (b) was reasonably calculated under the circumstances to apprise Settlement Class Members of the pendency of the Action, the terms of the Settlement, their right to appear at the Fairness Hearing, their right to object to the Settlement, and their right to exclude themselves from the Settlement. The Court finds that the Notice Plan set forth in the Settlement Agreement and effectuated pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to the Settlement Class of the pendency of the Action, certification of the Settlement Class for settlement purposes only, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, and the Final Approval Hearing, and satisfies the requirements of California law and federal due process of law.

Honorable Sharon Johnson Coleman, Eubank v. Pella Corporation, (February 16, 2018) No. 1:06-cv-04481 (N.D. Ill.):

The Court approves, as to form and content, the Notice Plan and Class Notice attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit 2 and finds that the Class Notice and the Notice Plan to be implemented pursuant to the Settlement Agreement are reasonable, constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances, constitute due and sufficient notice of the settlement and the matters set forth in said notice to all persons entitled to receive notice, and fully satisfy the requirements of due process and of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23.

Honorable Lynn Adelman, Fond Du Lac Bumper Exchange, Inc. v. Jui Li Enterprises Insurance Co., (Direct Purchaser– Jui Li Enterprise Settlement), (February 16, 2018) No. 2:09-CV-00852 (E.D. Wis.):

The Court further finds that the Notice Plan, previously approved by the Court (See ECF No. 1110) and as executed by the Court-appointed Settlement Administrator, KCC, as set forth in the Declaration of Carla A. Peak on Implementation and Overall Adequacy of Settlement Notice Plan (“Peak Declaration”) is the best notice practicable under the circumstances; is valid, due and sufficient notice to all Settlement Class Members; and complied fully with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and the due process requirements of the Constitution of the United States. The Court further finds that the forms of Notice (Peak Declaration Exhibits 1 and 2) are written in plain language, use simple terminology, and are designed to be readily understandable and noticeable by Settlement Class Members.

Judge Yvonne Gonzales Rogers, Abante Rooter and Plumbing Inc. v. Alarm.com Inc., (February 8, 2018) No. 4:15-cv-06314 (N.D. Cal) (overruling objections and ruling in favor of the notice plan):

The Court finds that the form and content of Plaintiffs’ proposed notice program, and the methods of disseminating notice to the Classes, satisfy the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process, constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice. The Court approves the form and content of the Email Notice, Postcard Notice, Banner Notices, and Website Notice, and finds that they clearly and concisely state in plain, easily understood language, the following required information: “(i) the nature of the action; (ii) the definition of the class certified; (iii) the class claims, issues, or defenses; (iv) that a class member may enter an appearance through an attorney if the member so desires; (v) that the court will exclude from the class any member who requests exclusion; (vi) the time and manner for requesting exclusion; and (vii) the binding effect of a class judgment on members under Rule 23(c)(3).” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B); see also Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts, 472 U.S. 797, 812 (1985) (stating that’s due process requires notice to apprise party of pendency of action, afford party opportunity to appear, describe party’s rights, and provide party opportunity to opt out of action). The Court approves the methods of disseminating the notice, which class action administrator Kurtzman Carson Consultants, Inc. has designed to reach approximately 90% of Class members. The combination of email notice, postal mail notice, and internet banner ads constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances.

Honorable Yvonne Gonzalez Rogers, Rooter v. Alarm.com Incorporated (February 2, 2018) No. 4:15-cv-06314 (N.D. Cal):

The Court finds that the form and content of Plaintiffs’ proposed notice program, and the methods of disseminating notice to the Classes, satisfy the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process, constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice.

The Court approves the form and content of the Email Notice, Postcard Notice, Banner Notices, and Website Notice, and finds that they clearly and concisely state in plain, easily understood language, the following required information: “(i) the nature of the action; (ii) the definition of the class certified; (iii) the class claims, issues, or defenses; (iv) that a class member may enter an appearance through an attorney if the member so desires; (v) that the court will exclude from the class any member who requests exclusion; (vi) the time and manner for requesting exclusion; and (vii) the binding effect of a class judgment on members under Rule 23(c)(3).” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B)...

Judge Fernando M. Olguin, Dodge v. PHH Corporation, (January 29, 2018) No. 8:15-cv-01973 (C.D. Cal):

Based on the foregoing, the court finds that there is no alternative method of distribution that would be more practicable here, or any more reasonably likely to notify the class members. The court further finds that the procedure for providing notice and the content of the class notice constitute the best practicable notice to class members.

Judge Timothy S. Black, Rikos v. The Procter & Gamble Company, (December 20, 2017) No. 1:11-cv-00226 (S.D. Ohio):

The Court approves, as to form and content, the proposed Notice of Class Action Settlement (the "Class Notice"), which forms are attached as Exhibits 4 and 5 to the Settlement Agreement. The Court finds that the distribution of Class Notice substantially in the manner and form set forth in this Order and the Settlement Agreement meet the requirements of Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 23 and due process, is the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled thereto.

Honorable Kenneth R. Freeman, Elias v. Synchrony Bank, f/k/a GE Capital Retail Bank, (December 8, 2017) No. BC555883 (Sup. Ct. Cal.):

The Court finds that the form, manner and content of the Class Notice specified in Section 5 of the Settlement Agreement and Exhibits B and D thereto provided a means of notice reasonably calculated to apprise the Class Members of the pendency of the action and the proposed settlement, and thereby met the requirements of California Rules of Court Rule 3.769 and California Code of Civil Procedure § 382, as well as due process under the United States Constitution, the California Constitution, and any other applicable laws, constituted the best practicable notice under the circumstances, and constituted due and sufficient notice to all Class Members entitled thereto.

Judge Denise J. Casper, In re Solodyn (Minocycline Hydrochloride) Antitrust Litigation, (Direct Purchasers), (November 27, 2017) No. 1:14-md-02503 (D. Mass.):

Members of the End-Payor Classes for the Sandoz and Lupin Settlements were provided with due and adequate notice of the Settlements, including their right to object to the Settlements and End-Payor Class Counsel's intent to seek from the Settlement Funds reimbursement of costs and expenses. Notice was distributed via both direct mail and publication notice. Such notice fully complied in all respects with the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process of law. A full and fair opportunity to be heard was afforded to all members of the Settlement Classes with respect to the foregoing matters. Accordingly, the Court hereby determines that all members of the End-Payor Classes for the Sandoz and Lupin Settlements are bound by this Order and Final Judgment.

Honorable Lynn Adelman, Fond Du Lac Bumper Exchange, Inc. v. Jui Li Enterprises Insurance Co., (Direct Purchaser– Jui Li Enterprise Settlement), (November 21, 2017) No. 2:09-CV-00852 (E.D. Wis.):

The Court approves the forms of the Notice of proposed class action settlement attached to the Declaration of Carla A. Peak ("Peak Decl.") at Exhibit 2 (Long-Form Notice and Summary/Publication Notice). The Court further finds that the mailing and publication of the Notice in the manner set forth below and in the Peak Declaration is the best notice practicable under the circumstances; is valid, due and sufficient notice to all Settlement Class Members; and complies fully with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and the due process requirements of the Constitution of the United States. The Court further finds that the forms of Notice are written in plain language, use simple terminology, and are designed to be readily understandable by Settlement Class Members.

Honorable James H. Ashford, Nishimura v. Gentry Homes, Ltd., (October 27, 2017) No. 11-1-1522 (Cir. Ct., Hawai'i):

The Court finds that the Notice Plan and Class Notices fully and accurately informed the potential Class Members of all material elements of the proposed Settlement and of each Class Member's right and opportunity to object to the proposed Settlement. The Court further finds that the Administrator's mailing and distribution of the Class Notice and the publication of the Class Notices substantially in the manner and form set forth in the Notice Plan and Settlement Agreement met the requirements of the laws of the State of Hawai'i (including Hawai'i Rule of Civil Procedure 23), the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), the Rules of the Court, and any other applicable law, constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constituted due and sufficient notice to all potential Class Members.

Judge Celia Gamrath, Truong v. Peak Campus Management LLC, (October 16, 2017) No. 2016-CH-09735 (Cir. Ct. Cook Cnty., Ill.):

The Court finds that the Notice Plan as set forth in the Settlement Agreement and the Declaration of Carla A. Peak meets the requirements of Section 2-803 of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure and constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including direct individual notice by U.S. Mail or, in some cases by email, to Settlement Class Members, and satisfies fully the requirements of Due Process, and any other applicable law, such that the Settlement Agreement and Final Order and Judgment will be binding on all Settlement Class Members.

Judge John Bailey, In re Monitronics International, Inc., Telephone Consumer Protection Act Litigation, (September 28, 2017) No. 5:11-cv-00090 (N.D. W.Va.):

The Court carefully considered the Notice Plan set forth in the Settlement Agreement and plaintiffs' motion for preliminary approval. The Court finds that the Notice Plan constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and satisfies fully the requirements of Rule 23, the requirements of due process and any other applicable law, such that the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the releases provided therein, and this Court's final judgment will be binding on all Settlement Class Members.

Judge Douglas L. Rayes, Brill v. Bank of America, N.A., (September 15, 2017) No. 2:16-cv-03817 (D. Ariz.):

The record shows, and the Court finds, that the Class Notice has been given to the Settlement Class in the manner approved by the Court in its Preliminary Approval Order. The Court finds that such Class Notice (i) constituted the best notice practicable to the Settlement Class under the circumstances; (ii) was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise the Settlement Class of the pendency and nature of this Action, the definition of the Settlement Class, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the rights of the Settlement Class to exclude themselves from the settlement or to object to any part of the settlement, the rights of the Settlement Class to appear at the Fairness Hearing (either on their own or through counsel hired at their own expense), and the binding effect of the Settlement Agreement on all persons who do not exclude themselves from the Settlement Class, (iii) provided due, adequate, and sufficient notice to the Settlement Class; and (iv) fully satisfied the due process requirements of the United States Constitution, Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, and any other applicable law or rule.

Honorable Ann I. Jones, Eck v. City of Los Angeles, (September 15, 2017) No. BC577028 (Sup. Ct. Cal.):

The form, manner, and content of the Class Notice, attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibits B, E, F and G, will provide the best notice practicable to the Class under the circumstances, constitutes valid, due, and sufficient notice to all Class Members, and fully complies with California Code of Civil Procedure section 382, California Code of Civil Procedure section 1781, the Constitution of the State of California, the Constitution of the United States, and other applicable law.

Honorable James Ashford, Nishimura v Gentry Homes, LTD., (September 14, 2017) No. 11-11-1-1522-07-RAN (Cir. Ct. Hawai'i):

The Court finds that the Notice Plan and Class Notices will fully and accurately inform the potential Class Members of all material elements of the proposed Settlement and of each Class Member's right and opportunity to object to the proposed Settlement. The Court further finds that the mailing and distribution of the Class Notice and the publication of the Class Notices substantially in the manner and form set forth in the Notice Plan and Settlement Agreement meets the requirements of the laws of the State of Hawai'i (including Hawai'i Rule of Civil Procedure 23), the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), the Rules of the Court, and any other applicable law, constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constitutes due and sufficient notice to all potential Class Members.

Honorable André Birotte Jr., Rafofsky v. Nissan North America, Inc., (September 12, 2017) No. 2:15-cv-01848 (C.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that the Class Notice has been given to the Class in the manner approved by the Court in the Preliminary Approval Order (ECF No. 126). The Court finds that such Class Notice: (i) was reasonable and constituted the best practicable notice under the circumstances; (ii) was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Class Members of the pendency of the Litigation, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, their right to exclude themselves from the Class or object to all or any part of the Settlement Agreement, their right to appear at the Fairness Hearing (either on their own or through counsel hired at their own expense), and the binding effect of final approval of the Settlement on all persons who do not exclude themselves from the Class; (iii) constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons or entities entitled to receive notice; and (iv) fully satisfied the requirements of the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, and any other applicable law.

Honorable Charles R. Norgle, Mullins v. Direct Digital, LLC, (September 7, 2017) No. 1:13-cv-01829 (N.D. Ill.):

The notice, in form, method, and content, fully complied with the requirements of Rule 23 and due process, constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constituted due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice of the settlement..

Honorable Steve C. Jones, Prather v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., (August 31, 2017) No. 1:15-cv-04231 (N.D. Ga.):

The Court further finds and concludes that the Class Notice and claims submission procedures set forth in the Settlement Agreement fully satisfy Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the requirements of due process, were the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and support the Court's exercise of jurisdiction over the Settlement Class as contemplated in the Settlement and this Order.

Judge Lucy H. Koh, In re Anthem, Inc. Data Breach Litigation, (August 25, 2017) No. 5:15-md-02617 (N.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that the Notice and Notice Plan set forth in the Settlement Agreement satisfy the requirements of due process and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and provide the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice and Notice Plan are reasonably calculated to apprise Settlement Class Members of the nature of this litigation, the scope of the Settlement Class, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the right of Settlement Class Members to object to the Settlement Agreement or exclude themselves from the Settlement Class and the process for doing so, and of the Final Approval Hearing.

Honorable Jeffrey S. White, In re Yapstone Data Breach, (August 16, 2017) No. 4:15-cv-04429 (C.D. Cal.):

The Notices and the Notice Program provided the best notice practicable under the circumstances to the Settlement Class Members and fully satisfied the requirements of due process under the United States Constitution and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23. Based on the evidence and information supplied to the Court in connection with the Final Approval Hearing held on August 4, 2017, the Court finds that the Notices were adequate and reasonable. The Court further finds that through the Notices, the Settlement Class Members have been apprised of the nature and pendency of the Consumer Action, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, as well as their rights to request exclusion, object, and/or appear at the final approval hearing.

Honorable Consuelo B. Marshall, Couser v. Dish One Satellite, LLC, (May 16, 2017) No. 5:15-cv-02218 (C.D. Cal.):

The Court approves the proposed plan for giving notice to the Settlement Class directly (by post card) and through an appropriate media program and establishment of a Settlement Website, as more fully described in Plaintiffs Motion and the Agreement (the "Notice Plan"). The Notice Plan, in form, method and content, complies with the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances.

Honorable André Birotte Jr., Rafofsky v. Nissan North America, Inc., (May 1, 2017) No. 2:15-cv-01848 (C.D. Cal.):

The Court has considered the Notice in the Settlement and finds that the Notice and methodology as described in the Settlement and in the Declaration of Carla Peak attached as Exhibit B to Plaintiffs' Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Support of Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement, including the exhibits attached thereto: (a) meets the requirements of due process and Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c) and (e); (b) constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances to all persons entitled to notice; and (c) satisfies the constitutional requirements regarding notice. In addition, the forms of notice: (a) apprise Class Members of the pendency of the Litigation, the terms of the proposed Settlement, their rights, and deadlines under the Settlement; (b) are written in simple terminology; (c) are readily understandable by Class Members; and (d) comply with the Federal Judicial Center's illustrative class action notices. The Court approves the Notice and methodology as described in the Settlement and in the Declaration of Carla Peak in all respects.

Judge Douglas L. Rayes, Brill v. Bank of America, N.A., (April 18, 2017) No. 2:16-cv-03817 (D. Ariz.):

The Court finds that the Class Notice described above is reasonable, that it constitutes due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice, and that it meets the requirements of due process and Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Specifically, the Court finds that the Class Notice complies with Rule 23(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure as it is a reasonable manner of providing notice to those Settlement Class Members who would be bound by the settlement. The Court also finds that the Class Notice complies with Rule 23(c)(2), as it is also the best form and manner of notice practicable under the circumstances, provides individual notice to members of the Settlement Class who can be identified through a reasonable effort, and is reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise members of the Settlement Class of the pendency of the Action, the terms of the settlement, and their right to object to the settlement or exclude themselves from the Settlement Class.

Judge Denise J. Casper, In re Solodyn (Minocycline Hydrochloride) Antitrust Litigation, (Direct Purchasers), (April 14, 2017) No. 1:14-md-02503 (D. Mass.):

The proposed form of Notice to Direct Purchaser Settlement Class members of the pendency and proposed Settlements of this action as against Sandoz and Lupin only ("Settlement Notice") and the proposed method of dissemination of the Settlement Notice by first class mail satisfy the requirements of Rule 23(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process, are otherwise fair and reasonable, and therefore are approved.

Judge Cecilia M. Altonaga, Flaum v. Doctor's Associates, Inc., (March 22, 2017) No. 16-cv-61198 (S.D. Fla.):

The Court has considered the proposed forms of notice including the Summary Notice; Full Notice for the Settlement Website; Publication Notice; Press Release (attached as Exhibit 2, 3, 4 and 8 to the Settlement Agreement); and Settlement Claim Forms (attached as Exhibits 6 and 7 to the Settlement Agreement); and finds the forms, content, and manner of notice proposed by the Parties and approved herein meet the requirements of due process and FED. R. CIV. P. 23(c) and (e), are the best notice practicable under the circumstances, constitute sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice, and satisfy the Constitutional requirements of notice. The Court approves the notice program in all respects (including the proposed forms of notice, Summary Notice, Full Notice for the Settlement Website, Publication Notice, Press Release and Settlement Claim Forms, and orders that notice be given in substantial conformity therewith.

Honorable Amy J. St. Eve, In Re: Rust-Oleum Restore Marketing, Sales Practices and Products Liability Litig., (March 6, 2017) No. 1:15-cv-01364 (N.D. Ill.):

The Class Notice (as described in the Settlement Agreement and previously approved by the Court) fully complied with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(B) and due process, constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and was due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice of the Settlement of the Action.

Honorable Jeffrey S. White, In re Yapstone Data Breach, (March 2, 2017) No. 4:15-cv-04429 (C.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that the notice plan and all forms of Notice to the Class as set forth in the Settlement Agreement and Exhibits E and G thereto (the "Notice Program") is reasonably calculated to, under all circumstances, apprise the members of the Settlement Class of the pendency of this action, the certification of the Settlement Class, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, and the right of members to object to the settlement or to exclude themselves from the Class. The Notice Program is consistent with the requirements of Rule 23 and due process, and constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances.

Judge Manish S. Shah, Johnson v. Yahoo! Inc., (December 12, 2016) No. 1:14-cv-02028 (N.D. Ill.):

The Court approves the notice plan set forth in Plaintiff's Amended Motion to Approve Class Notice (Doc. 252) (the "Notice Plan"). The Notice Plan, in form, method, and content, complies with the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process, and constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances.

Judge Joan A. Leonard, Barba v. Shire U.S., Inc., (December 2, 2016) No. 1:13-cv-21158 (S.D. Fla.):

The notice of settlement (in the form presented to this Court as Exhibits E, F, and G, attached to the Settlement Agreement [D.E. 423-1] (collectively, "the Notice") directed to the Settlement Class members, constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. In making this determination, the Court finds that the Notice was given to potential Settlement Class members who were identified through reasonable efforts, published using several publication dates in Better Homes and Gardens, National Geographic, and People magazines; placed on targeted website and portal banner advertisements on general Run of Network sites; included in e-newsletter placements with ADDitude, a magazine dedicated to helping children and adults with attention deficit disorder and learning disabilities lead successful lives, and posted on the Settlement Website which included additional access to Settlement information and a toll-free number. Pursuant to, and in accordance with, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, the Court hereby finds that the Notice provided Settlement Class members with due and adequate notice of the Settlement, the Settlement Agreement, these proceedings, and the rights of Settlement Class members to make a claim, object to the Settlement or exclude themselves from the Settlement.

Justice Robert Stack, Anderson v. Canada (Attorney General), (November 7, 2016) No. 200701T4955CCP (Supreme Ct. Newfoundland and Labrador):

The Plaintiffs intend to provide significant notice of the Settlement to class members, which will include, among other things, direct mailings to class members, direct mailings to third parties, dissemination of a short form notice in various media, and direct community outreach and meetings. The proposed notice materials are intended to be simple and easy to read and understand.

Judge William H. Pauley III, The Dial Corporation v. News Corporation, (November 3, 2016) No. 1:13-cv-06802 (S.D. N.Y.):

The notification provided for and given to the Class: (i) was provided and made in full compliance with the Preliminary Approval Order; (ii) constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances; (iii) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated to apprise the Class of the terms of Settlement, of the proposed Plan of Allocation, of Plaintiffs Counsel's application for an award of attorney's fees, costs, and expenses incurred in connection with the Action, of Class Members' right to object to the Settlement, the Plan of Allocation, or Plaintiffs' Counsel's application for an award of attorney's fees, costs and expenses, and of the right of Class Members to appear at the Settlement Hearing; (iv) constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all Persons entitled to receive notice of the proposed Settlement; and (v) fully satisfied the notice requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution), and all other applicable law and rules.

Honorable Amy J. St. Eve, In Re: Rust-Oleum Restore Marketing, Sales Practices and Products Liability Litig., (October 20, 2016) No. 1:15-cv-01364 (N.D. Ill.):

The Notices of Class Action and Proposed Settlement (Exhibits A and B to the Settlement Agreement) and the method of providing such Notices to the proposed Settlement Class (as described in Settlement Agreement ¶6 and in the Declaration of Carla A. Peak on Settlement Notice Plan, filed on October 19, 2016), comply with Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e) and due process, constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and provide due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice of the settlement of this Action.

Honorable R. Gary Klausner, Russell v. Kohl's Department Stores, Inc., (October 20, 2016) No. 5:15-cv-01143 (C.D. Cal.):

Notice of the settlement was provided to the Settlement Class in a reasonable manner, and was the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including through individual notice to all members who could be reasonably identified through reasonable effort.

Judge Fernando M. Olguin, Chambers v. Whirlpool Corporation, (October 11, 2016) No. 8:11-cv-01733 (C.D. Cal.):

Accordingly, based on its prior findings and the record before it, the court finds that the Class Notice and the notice process fairly and adequately informed the class members of the nature of the action, the terms of the proposed settlement, the effect of the action and release of claims, their right to exclude themselves from the action, and their right to object to the proposed settlement.

Honourable Justice Stack, Anderson v. The Attorney General of Canada, (September 28, 2016) No. 2007 01T4955CP (Supreme Ct. Newfound and Labrador):

The Phase 2 Notice Plan satisfies the requirements of the Class Actions Act and shall constitute good and sufficient service upon class members of the notice of this Order, approval of the Settlement and discontinuance of these actions.

Judge Mary M. Rowland, In re: The Home Depot, Inc., Customer Data Security Breach Litig., (August 23, 2016) No. 1:14-md-02583 (N.D. Ga.):

The Court finds that the Notice Program has been implemented by the Settlement Administrator and the parties in accordance with the requirements of the Settlement Agreement, and that such Notice Program, including the utilized forms of Notice, constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances and satisfies due process and the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Honorable Manish S. Shah, Campos v. Calumet Transload Railroad, LLC, (August 3, 2016) No. 1:13-cv-08376 (S.D. NY.):

The form, content, and method of dissemination of the notice given to the Settlement Class were adequate, reasonable, and constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The notice, as given, provided valid, due, and sufficient notice of the Settlements, the terms and conditions set forth therein, and these proceedings to all Persons entitled to such notice. The notice satisfied the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure ("Rule 23") and due process.

Honorable Lynn Adelman, Fond Du Lac Bumper Exchange, Inc. v. Jui Li Enterprise Company, Ltd., (Indirect Purchaser–Jui Li Settlement), (July 7, 2016) No. 2:09-cv-00852 (E.D. Wis.):

The Court approves the Notice Program set forth in the Declaration of Carla A. Peak. The Court approves as to form and content the Postcard Notice, Summary Publication Notice, and Detailed Notice in the forms attached as Exhibits 1–3, respectively, to the Declaration of Carla A. Peak. The Court further finds that the mailing and publication of Notice in the manner set forth in the Notice Program is the best notice practicable under the circumstances; is valid, due and sufficient notice to all Settlement Class members; and complies fully with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and the due process requirements of the Constitution of the United States. The Court further finds that the forms of Notice are written in plain language, use simple terminology, and are designed to be readily understandable by Settlement Class members.

Judge William H. Pauley III, The Dial Corporation v. News Corporation, (June 2, 2016) No. 1:13-cv-06802 (S.D. NY.):

The form and content of the notice program described herein, and the methods set forth herein of notifying the Class of the Settlement and its terms and conditions, meet the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and constitutional due process, constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to all Persons entitled thereto.

Honorable R. Gary Klausner, Russell v. Kohl's Department Stores, Inc., (April 11, 2016) No. 5:15-cv-01143 (C.D. Cal.):

Here, the Notice Plan includes several ways to reach proposed Class Members, including an information website, direct mailing, direct emails, and a toll-free help line. Furthermore, the proposed Notice provides details sufficient to explain the terms of the Settlement Agreement and provide information to Class Members about their rights, releases, and application deadlines. The Notice informs Class Members of how funds will be allocated, and how Residual Funds will be handled. Class Members are also put on notice of Attorneys' Fees and Expenses awarded and an Incentive Award to the Class Representative. Finally, the Notice plainly indicates the time and place of the hearing to consider approval of the settlement and the method of objecting to or opting out of the settlement. Based on the above facts, the Court approves the proposed Notice Plan.

Judge Joan A. Leonard, Barba v. Shire U.S., Inc., (April 11, 2016) No. 1:13-cv-21158 (S.D. Fla.):

The Court finds that the proposed methods for giving notice of the Settlement to members of the Settlement Class, as set forth in this Order and in the Settlement Agreement, meet the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 23 and requirements of state and federal due process, is the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled thereto.

Honorable Manish S. Shah, Campos v. Calumet Transload Railroad, LLC, (March 10, 2016 and April 18, 2016) No. 1:13-cv-08376 (S.D. NY.):

The Court approves the Notice Program set forth in the Declaration of Carla A. Peak, attached as Exhibit A to the Settlement. The Court approves as to form and content the Postcard Notice, Summary Notice, and Detailed Notice in the forms attached as Exhibits B, C, and D, respectively, to the Settlement. The Court further finds that the mailing and publication of Notice in the manner set forth in the Notice Program is the best notice practicable under the circumstances, constitutes due and sufficient notice of the Settlement and this Order to all persons entitled thereto, and is in full compliance with the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, applicable law, and due process.

Judge Mary M. Rowland, In re: The Home Depot, Inc., Customer Data Security Breach Litig., (March 8, 2016) No. 1:14-md-02583 (N.D. Ga.):

The Court finds that the form, content and method of giving notice to the Class as described in Paragraph 7 of this Order and the Settlement Agreement (including the exhibits thereto): (a) will constitute the best practicable notice to the Settlement Class; (b) are reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Settlement Class Members of the pendency of the action, the terms of the proposed settlement, and their rights under the proposed settlement, including but not limited to their rights to object to or exclude themselves from the proposed settlement and other rights under the terms of the Settlement Agreement; (c) are reasonable and constitute due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all Class Members and other persons entitled to receive notice; and (d) meet all applicable requirements of law, including Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c) and (e), and the Due Process Clause(s) of the United States Constitution. The Court further finds that the Notice is written in plain language, uses simple terminology, and is designed to be readily understandable by Class Members.

Judge Mary M. Rowland, In re: Sears, Roebuck and Co. Front-Loader Washer Products Liability Litig., (February 29, 2016) No. 1:06-cv-07023 (N.D. Ill.):

*The Court concludes that, under the circumstances of this case, the Settlement Administrator's notice program was the "best notice that is practicable," Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B), and was "reasonably calculated to reach interested parties," Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 318 (1950).*

Honorable Lynn Adelman, Fond Du Lac Bumper Exchange, Inc. v. Jui Li Enterprises Insurance Co., (Indirect Purchaser–Tong Yang & Gordon Settlements), (January 14, 2016) No. 2:09-CV-00852 (E.D. Wis.):

The form, content, and methods of dissemination of Notice of the Settlements to the Settlement Class were reasonable, adequate, and constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice, as given, provided valid, due, and sufficient notice of the Settlements, the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlements, and these proceedings to all persons and entities entitled to such notice, and said notice fully satisfied the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process requirements.

Judge Curtis L. Collier, In re: Skelaxin (Metaxalone) Antitrust Litigation, (December 22, 2015) No. 1:12-md-2343 (E.D. Tenn.):

The Class Notice met statutory requirements of notice under the circumstances, and fully satisfied the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and the requirement process.

Honorable Mitchell D. Dembin, Lerma v. Schiff Nutrition International, Inc., (November 3, 2015) No. 3:11-CV-01056 (S.D. Cal.):

The Court finds this notice (i) constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, (ii) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise the putative Class Members of the pendency of the action, and of their right to object and to appear at the Final Approval Hearing or to exclude themselves from the Settlement, (iii) was reasonable and constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to be provided with notice, and (iv) fully complied with due process principles and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23.

Honorable Lynn Adelman, Fond Du Lac Bumper Exchange, Inc. v. Jui Li Enterprises Insurance Co., Direct Purchaser–Tong Yang & Gordon Settlements, (August 13, 2015) No. 2:09-CV-00852 (E.D. Wis.):

The Court further finds that the Notice Plan, previously approved by the Court (See ECF Nos. 619 & 641) and as executed by the Court-appointed Claims Administrator, KCC, as set forth in the Declaration of Carla A. Peak on Implementation and Overall Adequacy of Combined Settlement Notice Plan (“Peak Declaration”) is the best notice practicable under the circumstances; is valid, due and sufficient notice to all Settlement Class Members; and complied fully with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and the due process requirements of the Constitution of the United States. The Court further finds that the forms of Notice (Peak Declaration Exhibits 1 and 2) are written in plain language, use simple terminology, and are designed to be readily understandable and noticeable by Settlement Class Members.

Honorable Lynn Adelman, Fond Du Lac Bumper Exchange, Inc. v. Jui Li Enterprises Insurance Co., Indirect Purchaser–Gordon Settlement, (August 4, 2015) No. 2:09-CV-00852 (E.D. Wis.):

The Court approves the Notice Program set forth in the Declaration of Carla A. Peak. The Court approves as to form and content the Postcard Notice, Summary Publication Notice, and Detailed Notice in the forms attached as Exhibits 2–4, respectively, to the Declaration of Carla A. Peak. The Court further finds that the mailing and publication of Notice in the manner set forth in the Notice Program is the best notice practicable under the circumstances; is valid, due and sufficient notice to all Settlement Class members; and complies fully with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and the due process requirements of the Constitution of the United States. The Court further finds that the forms of Notice are written in plain language, use simple terminology, and are designed to be readily understandable by Settlement Class members.

Honorable Lynn Adelman, Fond du Lac Bumper Exchange, Inc. v. Jui Li Enterprise Co., Ltd. (Indirect Purchaser–Tong Yang Settlement), (May 29, 2015) No. 2:09-CV-00852 (E.D. Wis.):

The Court approves the Notice Program set forth in the Declaration of Carla A. Peak. The Court approves as to form and content the Postcard Notice, Summary Publication Notice, and Detailed Notice in the forms attached as Exhibits 2–4, respectively, to the Declaration of Carla A. Peak. The Court further finds that the mailing and publication of Notice in the manner set forth in the Notice Program is the best notice practicable under the circumstances; is valid, due and sufficient notice to all Settlement Class members; and complies fully with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and the due process requirements of the Constitution of the United States. The Court further finds that the forms of Notice are written in plain language, use simple terminology, and are designed to be readily understandable by Settlement Class members.

Honorable Lynn Adelman, Fond du Lac Bumper Exchange, Inc. v. Jui Li Enterprise Co., Ltd. (Direct Purchaser–Gordon Settlement), (May 5, 2015) No. 2:09-CV-00852 (E.D. Wis.):

The Court approves the forms of the Notice of proposed class action settlement attached to the Declaration of Carla Peak ("Peak Decl.") at Exhibit 1 (Long-Form Notice and Summary/Publication Notice). The Court further finds that the mailing and publication of the Notice in the manner set forth below and in the Peak Decl. is the best notice practicable under the circumstances; is valid, due and sufficient notice to all Settlement Class members; and complies fully with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and the due process requirements of the Constitution of the United States. The Court further finds that the forms of Notice are written in plain language, use simple terminology, and are designed to be readily understandable by Settlement Class Members. The Notice Program set forth herein is substantially similar to the one set forth in the Court's April 24, 2015 Order regarding notice of the Tong Yang Settlement (ECF. No. 619) and combines the Notice for the Tong Yang Settlement with that of the Gordon Settlement into a comprehensive Notice Program. To the extent differences exist between the two, the Notice Program set forth and approved herein shall prevail over that found in the April 24, 2015 Order.

Honorable José L. Linares, Demmick v. Celco Partnership, (May 1, 2015) No. 2:06-CV-2163 (D. N.J.):

The Notice Plan, which this Court has already approved, was timely and properly executed and that it provided the best notice practicable, as required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, and met the "desire to actually inform" due process communications standard of Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306 (1950)... The Court thus affirms its finding and conclusion in the November 19, 2014 Preliminary Approval Order that the notice in this case meets the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Due Process Clause of the United States and/or any other applicable law. All objections submitted which make mention of notice have been considered and, in light of the above, overruled.

Honorable Lynn Adelman, Fond du Lac Bumper Exchange, Inc. v. Jui Li Enterprise Co., Ltd. (Direct Purchaser-Tong Yang Settlement), (April 4, 2015) No. 2:09-CV-00852 (E.D. Wis.):

The Court approves the forms of the Notice of proposed class action settlement attached to the Declaration of Carla A. Peak ("Peak Decl.") as Exhibit 2 (Long-Form Notice and Summary/Publication Notice). The Court further finds that the mailing and publication of the Notice in the manner set forth below and in the Peak Decl. is the best notice practicable under the circumstances; is valid, due and sufficient notice to all Settlement Class Members; and complies fully with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and the due process requirements of the Constitution of the United States. The Court further finds that the forms of Notice are written in plain language, use simple terminology, and are designed to be readily understandable by Settlement Class Members.

Honorable Rhonda A. Isiran Nishimura, Charles v. Haseko Homes, Inc., (February 24, 2015) No. 09-1-1932-08 (Cir. Ct. Hawai'i):

The Court approves, as to form and content, the Hurricane Straps Class Notice and the Hurricane Straps Repose Subclass Notice, and the Notice Plan that are attached as Exhibits 8-9 to the Declaration of Graham B. LippSmith ("LippSmith Decl.") and in the Declaration of Carla Peak...The Court finds that the Hurricane Straps Class Notice, the Hurricane Straps Repose Subclass Notice, and the Notice Plan will fully and accurately inform the potential Hurricane Straps Class Members and Hurricane Straps Repose Subclass Members of all material elements of the proposed Settlement, of their right to be excluded from the Hurricane Straps Class or Hurricane Straps Repose Subclass, and of each Hurricane Straps Class Member's or Hurricane Straps Repose Subclass Member's right and opportunity to object to the proposed Settlement. The Court further finds that the mailing and distribution of the Hurricane Straps Class Notice and the Hurricane Straps Repose Subclass Notice will (i) meet the requirements of the laws of the State of Hawai'i (including Haw. R. Civ. P. 23), the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), the Rules of the Court, and any other applicable law, (ii) constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and (iii) constitute due and sufficient notice to all potential Hurricane Straps Class Members and Hurricane Straps Repose Subclass Members.

Honorable Gary W.B. Chang, Kai v. Haseko Homes, Inc., (February 15, 2015) No. 09-1-2834-12 (Cir. Ct. Hawai'i):

The Court approves, as to form and content, the PEX Class Notice and Notice Plan attached as Exhibit 10 to the Declaration of Graham B. LippSmith ("LippSmith Decl.") and in the Declaration of Carla Peak. The Court finds that the PEX Class Notice and the Notice Plan will fully and accurately inform the potential PEX Class Members of all material elements of the proposed Settlement, of their right to be excluded from the PEX Class, and of each PEX Class Member's right and opportunity to object to the proposed Settlement. The Court further finds that the mailing and distribution of the PEX Class Notice substantially in the manner and form set forth in this Order will (i) meet the requirements of the laws of the State of Hawai'i (including Haw. R. Civ. P. 23), the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), the Rules of the Court, and any other applicable law, (ii) constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and (iii) constitute due and sufficient notice to all potential Class Members.

Honorable David O. Carter, Cobb v. BSH Home Appliances Corp., (December 29, 2014) No. 8:10-CV-0711 (C.D. Cal.):

The Notice Program complies with Rule 23(c)(2)(B) because it constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances, provides individual notice to all Class Members who can be identified through reasonable effort, and is reasonably calculated under the circumstances to apprise the Class Members of the nature of the action, the claims it asserts, the Class definition, the Settlement terms, the right to appear through an attorney, the right to opt out of the Class or to comment on or object to the Settlement (and how to do so), and the binding effect of a final judgment upon Class Members who do not opt out.

Honorable Christina A. Snyder, Roberts v. Electrolux Home Products, Inc., (September 11, 2014) No. 8:12-CV-01644 (C.D. Cal.):

The Court considered the Settlement Notice Plan submitted by the parties, and the Declaration of Carla A. Peak of KCC describing the Notice Plan...The Court finds that the Notice itself is appropriate, and complies with Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3), 23(c)(2)(B), and 23(e), because the Settlement Notice, FAQ, and Publication Notice fairly, accurately, and reasonably informed members of the Settlement Class, in plain language, of (1) appropriate information about the nature of this litigation and the essential terms of the Settlement Agreement; (2) appropriate information about, and means for obtaining, additional information regarding this litigation and the Settlement Agreement; (3) appropriate information about, and means for obtaining and submitting, a Claim Form; (4) appropriate information about the right of members of the Settlement Class to exclude themselves from the Settlement, object to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, including Class Counsel's request for an award of attorneys' fees and costs, and the procedures to do so; and (5) appropriate information about the consequences of failing to submit a Claim Form or failing to comply with the procedures and the deadline for opting out of, or objecting to, the Settlement...Accordingly, the Court hereby finds and concludes that members of the Settlement Class have been provided the best notice practicable of the Settlement and that such notice satisfies all requirements of federal and California laws and due process. The Court finally approves the Notice Plan in all respects...Any objections to the notice provided to the Class are hereby overruled.

Honorable David O. Carter, Cobb v. BSH Home Appliances Corp., (August 25, 2014) No. 8:10-CV-0711 (C.D. Cal.):

...the Court also finding that the proposed notice plan and forms of notice are the best notice practicable under the circumstances and satisfy all requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, including Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B); and for good cause shown, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiffs' Motion to Amend the Illinois Class Definition is GRANTED; and it is further ORDERED that Plaintiffs' Motion for Approval of Notice Plan and Proposed Forms of Notice is GRANTED.

Judge Gregory A. Presnell, Poertner v. The Gillette Co. and The Procter & Gamble Co., (August 21, 2014) No. 6:12-CV-00803 (M.D. Fla.):

This Court has again reviewed the Notice and the accompanying documents and finds that the "best practicable" notice was given to the Class and that the Notice was "reasonably calculated" to (a) describe the Action and the Plaintiff's and Class Members' rights in it; and (b) apprise interested parties of the pendency of the Action and of their right to have their objections to the Settlement heard. See Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts, 472 U.S. 797, 810 (1985). This Court further finds that Class Members were given a reasonable opportunity to opt out of the Action and that they were adequately represented by Plaintiff Joshua D. Poertner. See Id. The Court thus reaffirms its findings that the Notice given to the Class satisfies the requirements of due process and holds that it has personal jurisdiction over all Class Members.

Honorable Curtis L. Collier, In re: Skelaxin (Metaxalone) Antitrust Litigation, (August 5, 2014) No. 1:12-md-02343 (E.D. Tenn.):

The proposed form of Notice to End-Payor Settlement Class Members of the pendency and proposed settlement of this action ("Settlement Notice") set forth in the Notice Plan and Declaration of Carla Peak and the proposed method of dissemination of the Settlement Notice ("Notice Plan")—first to Third-Party Payors and then to Consumers—satisfy the requirements of Rule 23(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process, are otherwise fair and reasonable, and therefore are approved.

Honorable Christina A. Snyder, Roberts v. Electrolux Home Products, Inc., (May 5, 2014) No. 8:12-CV-01644 (C.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that the Notice Plan set forth in the Settlement Agreement (§ V. of that Agreement)...is the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constitutes sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice. The Court further preliminarily finds that the Notice itself IS appropriate, and complies with Rules 23(b)(3), 23(c)(2)(B), and 23(e) because it describes in plain language (1) the nature of the action, (2) the definition of the Settlement Class and Subclasses, (3) the class claims, issues or defenses, (4) that a class member may enter an appearance through an attorney if the member so desires, (5) that the Court will exclude from the class any member who requests exclusion, (6) the time and manner for requesting exclusion, and (7) the binding effect of a judgment on Settlement Class Members under Rule 23(c)(3) and the terms of the releases. Accordingly, the Court approves the Notice Plan in all respects...

Honorable Jose L. Linares, In re Hypodermic Products Antitrust Litigation, (March 17, 2014) MDL No. 1730, No. 2:05-CV-01602 (D. N.J.):

The Class Notice provides a description of the Indirect Purchaser Class, the procedural status of the litigation, a brief description of the plan of allocation, the court approval process for the proposed Settlement, and the significant terms of the Settlement. The Class Notice also fully informed members of the Indirect Purchaser Class of their rights with respect to the Settlement, including the right to opt out of, object to the Settlement, or otherwise be heard as to the reasonableness and fairness of the Settlement. The Class Notice also informed members of the Indirect Purchaser Class of their right to object to Indirect Purchaser Plaintiffs' Lead Counsel's application for an award of attorneys' fees, an award of incentive fees, and reimbursement of expenses from the Settlement Fund....The Class Notice met the statutory requirements of notice under the circumstances, and fully satisfied the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and the requirements of due process.

Honorable William E. Smith, Cappalli v. BJ's Wholesale Club, Inc., (December 12, 2013) No. 1:10-CV-00407 (D. R.I.):

The Court finds that the form, content, and method of dissemination of the notice given to the Settlement Class were adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The notice, as given, provided valid, due, and sufficient notice of these proceedings of the proposed Settlement, and of the terms set forth in the Stipulation and first Joint Addendum, and the notice fully satisfied the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Constitutional due process, and all other applicable laws.

Judge Gregory A. Presnell, Poertner v. The Gillette Co. and The Procter & Gamble Co., (November 5, 2013) No. 6:12-CV-00803 (M.D. Fla.):

The proposed Class Notice and Claim Form are approved as to form and content. The Court finds that the content of the Class Notice and the Claim Form satisfy the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2), Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(1), and due process and accordingly approves them...The Court finds that compliance with the Notice Plan is the best practicable notice under the circumstances and constitutes due and sufficient notice of this Order to all persons entitled thereto and is in full compliance with the requirements of Rule 23, applicable law, and due process.

Honorable Jose L. Linares, In re Hypodermic Products Antitrust Litigation, (November 4, 2013) No. 2:05-CV-01602 (D. N.J.):

Upon reviewing Plaintiffs' Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement, Conditional Class Certification and Approval of Notice Plan and the Declarations of Karin E. Fisch, Esq. and Carla A. Peak and the documents attached thereto, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:...Proposed forms of Notice are attached hereto as Exhibit A. The Court finds that the form fairly and adequately: (i) describes the terms and effect of the Settlement Agreement and of the Settlement; (ii) notifies the Indirect Purchaser Class concerning the proposed plan of allocation and distribution; (iii) notifies the Indirect Purchaser Plaintiffs' Lead Counsel will seek attorneys' fees not to exceed one-third of the Settlement Fund, reimbursement of expenses and incentive fees; (iv) gives notice to the Indirect Purchaser Class of the time and place of the Fairness Hearing; and (v) describes how the recipients of the Notice may submit a claim, exclude themselves from the Settlement or object to any of the relief requested.

Judge Marilyn L. Huff, Beck-Ellman v. Kaz USA, Inc., (June 11, 2013) No. 3:10-cv-02134 (S. D. Cal.):

The Notice Plan has now been implemented in accordance with the Court's Preliminary Approval Order. The Publication Notice was designed to provide potential class members with information about the Settlement and their rights, in easy-to-comprehend language... The Notice Plan was specially developed to cause class members to see the Publication Notice or see an advertisement that directed them to the Settlement Website. KCC identified that the class members belong to a demographic group known as "Pain Relief Users." The Heating Pads are considered a Pain Relief product. The publications that KCC's Notice Plan used are publications and websites whose viewers and readers include a high percentage of Pain Relief product users...The Court concludes that the Class Notice fully satisfied the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and all due process requirements.

Judge Tom A. Lucas, Stroud v. eMachines, Inc., (March 27, 2013) No. CJ-2003-968 L (D. Ct. Cleveland Cnty, Okla.):

The Notices met the requirements of Okla. Stat. tit. 12 section 2023(C), due process, and any other applicable law; constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances; and constituted due and sufficient notice to all persons and entities entitled thereto. All objections are stricken. Alternatively, considered on their merits, all objections are overruled.

Judge Marilyn L. Huff, Beck-Ellman v. Kaz USA, Inc. (January 7, 2013) No. 3:10-cv-02134 (S. D. Cal.):

The proposed Class Notice, Publication Notice, and Settlement Website are reasonably calculated to inform potential Class members of the Settlement, and are the best practicable methods under the circumstances... Notice is written in easy and clear language, and provides all needed information, including: (1) basic information about the lawsuit; (2) a description of the benefits provided by the settlement; (3) an explanation of how Class members can obtain Settlement benefits; (4) an explanation of how Class members can exercise their rights to opt-out or object; (5) an explanation that any claims against Kaz that could have been litigated in this action will be released if the Class member does not opt out; (6) the names of Class Counsel and information regarding attorneys' fees; (7) the fairness hearing date and procedure for appearing; and (8) the Settlement Website and a toll free number where additional information, including Spanish translations of all forms, can be obtained. After review of the proposed notice and Settlement Agreement, the Court concludes that the Publication Notice and Settlement Website are adequate and sufficient to inform the class members of their rights. Accordingly, the Court approves the form and manner of giving notice of the proposed settlement.

Judge Tom A. Lucas, Stroud v. eMachines, Inc., (December 21, 2012) No. CJ-2003-968 L (D. Ct. Cleveland Cnty, Okla.):

The Plan of Notice in the Settlement Agreement as well as the content of the Claim Form, Class Notice, Post-Card Notice, and Summary Notice of Settlement is hereby approved in all respects. The Court finds that the Plan of Notice and the contents of the Class Notice, Post-Card Notice and Summary Notice of Settlement and the manner of their dissemination described in the Settlement Agreement is the best practicable notice under the circumstances and is reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Putative Class Members of the pendency of this action, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, and their right to object to the Settlement Agreement or exclude themselves from the Certified Settlement Class and, therefore, the Plan of Notice, the Class Notice, Post-Card Notice and Summary Notice of Settlement are approved in all respects. The Court further finds that the Class Notice, Post-Card Notice and Summary Notice of Settlement are reasonable, that they constitute due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice, and that they meet the requirements of due process.

Honorable Michael M. Anello, Shames v. The Hertz Corporation, (November 5, 2012) No. 3:07-cv-02174 (S.D. Cal.):

...the Court is satisfied that the parties and the class administrator made reasonable efforts to reach class members. Class members who did not receive individualized notice still had opportunity for notice by publication, email, or both...The Court is satisfied that the redundancies in the parties' class notice procedure—mailing, e-mailing, and publication—reasonably ensured the widest possible dissemination of the notice...The Court OVERRULES all objections to the class settlement...

Judge Ann D. Montgomery, In Re: Uponor, Inc., F1807 Plumbing Fittings Products Liability Litigation, (July 9, 2012) No. 11-MD-2247 (D. Minn.):

The objections filed by class members are overruled; The notice provided to the class was reasonably calculated under the circumstances to apprise class members of the pendency of this action, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, and their right to object, opt out, and appear at the final fairness hearing;...

Judge Ann D. Montgomery, In Re: Uponor, Inc., F1807 Plumbing Fittings Products Liability Litigation, (June 29, 2012) No. 11-MD-2247 (D. Minn.):

After the preliminary approval of the Settlement, the parties carried out the notice program, hiring an experienced consulting firm to design and implement the plan. The plan consisted of direct mail notices to known owners and warranty claimants of the RTI F1807 system, direct mail notices to potential holders of subrogation interests through insurance company mailings, notice publications in leading consumer magazines which target home and property owners, and earned media efforts through national press releases and the Settlement website. The plan was intended to, and did in fact, reach a minimum of 70% of potential class members, on average more than two notices each...The California Objectors also take umbrage with the notice provided the class. Specifically, they argue that the class notice fails to advise class members of the true nature of the aforementioned release. This argument does not float, given that the release is clearly set forth in the Settlement and the published notices satisfy the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2)(B) by providing information regarding: (1) the nature of the action class membership; (2) class claims, issues, and defenses; (3) the ability to enter an appearance through an attorney; (4) the procedure and ability to opt-out or object; (5) the process and instructions to make a claim; (6) the binding effect of the class judgment; and (7) the specifics of the final fairness hearing.

Honorable Michael M. Anello, Shames v. The Hertz Corporation, (May 22, 2012) No. 3:07-cv-02174 (S.D. Cal.):

The Court approves, as to form and content, the Notice of Proposed Settlement of Class Action, substantially in the forms of Exhibits A-1 through A-6, as appropriate, (individually or collectively, the "Notice"), and finds that the e-mailing or mailing and distribution of the Notice and publishing of the Notice substantially in the manner and form set forth in ¶ 7 of this Order meet the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and due process, and is the best notice practicable under the circumstances and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to all Persons entitled thereto.

Judge Anthony Powell, Molina v. Intrust Bank, N.A., (May 21, 2012) No. 10-CV-3686 (18th J.D. Ct., Kan.):
The form, content, and method of dissemination of Class Notice given to the Class were adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice, as given, provided valid, due, and sufficient notice of the proposed settlement, the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and these proceeding to all persons entitled to such notice, and said notice fully satisfied the requirements of K.S.A. § 60-223 and due process.

Judge Ronald L. Bauer, Blue Cross of California Website Securities Litigation, (April 5, 2012) No. JCCP 4647 (Super. Ct. Cal.):

The form, content, and method of dissemination of the notice given to the Settlement Class were adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The notice, as given, provided valid, due, and sufficient notice of the proposed settlement, the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and these proceedings to all Person entitled to such notice, and said notice satisfied the requirements of California Rules of Court, Rule 3,766(e) and (f), and due process.

Judge Ann D. Montgomery, In Re: Uponor, Inc., F1807 Plumbing Fittings Products Liability Litigation, (January 18, 2012) No. 11-MD-2247 (D. Minn.):

Notice to Class members must clearly and concisely state the nature of the lawsuit and its claims and defenses, the Class certified, the Class member's right to appear through an attorney or opt out of the Class, the time and manner for opting out, and the binding effect of a class judgment on members of the Class. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B). Compliance with Rule 23's notice requirements also complies with Due Process requirements. 'The combination of reasonable notice, the opportunity to be heard, and the opportunity to withdraw from the class satisfy due process requirements of the Fifth Amendment.' Prudential, 148 F.3d at 306. The proposed notices in the present case meet those requirements.

Judge Jeffrey Goering, Molina v. Intrust Bank, N.A., (January 17, 2012) No. 10-CV-3686 (18th J.D. Ct. Ks.):

The Court approved the form and content of the Class Notice, and finds that transmission of the Notice as proposed by the Parties meets the requirements of due process and Kansas law, is the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constitutes due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled thereto.

Judge Charles E. Atwell, Allen v. UMB Bank, N.A., (October 31, 2011) No. 1016-CV34791 (Cir. Ct. Mo.):

The form, content, and method of dissemination of Class Notice given to the Class were adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice, as given, provided valid, due, and sufficient notice of the proposed settlement, the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and these proceedings to all persons entitled to such notice, and said notice fully satisfied the requirements of Rule 52.08 of the Missouri Rules of Civil Procedure and due process.

Judge Charles E. Atwell, Allen v. UMB Bank, N.A., (June 27, 2011) No. 1016-CV34791 (Cir. Ct. Mo.):

The Court approves the form and content of the Class Notice, and finds that transmission of the Notice as proposed by the Parties meets the requirements of due process and Missouri law, is the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constitutes due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled thereto.

Judge Jeremy Fogel, Ko v. Natura Pet Products, Inc., (June 24, 2011) No. 5:09cv2619 (N.D. Cal.):

The Court approves, as to form and content, the Long Form Notice of Pendency and Settlement of Class Action ("Long Form Notice"), and the Summary Notice attached as Exhibits to the Settlement Agreement, and finds that the e-mailing of the Summary Notice, and posting on the dedicated internet website of the Long Form Notice, mailing of the Summary Notice post-card, and newspaper and magazine publication of the Summary Notice substantially in the manner as set forth in this Order meets the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and due process, and is the best notice practicable under the circumstances and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice.

Judge M. Joseph Tiemann, Billieson v. City of New Orleans, (May 27, 2011) No. 94-19231 (Civ. D. Ct. La.):

The plan to disseminate notice for the Insurance Settlements (the "Insurance Settlements Notice Plan") which was designed at the request of Class Counsel by experienced Notice Professionals Gina Intrepido-Bowden and Carla A. Peak... IT IS ORDERED as follows: 1. The Insurance Settlements Notice Plan is hereby approved and shall be executed by the Notice Administrator; 2. The Insurance Settlements Notice Documents, substantially in the form included in the Insurance Settlements Notice Plan, are hereby approved.

Judge James Robertson, In re Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Data Theft Litig., (February 11, 2009) MDL No. 1796 (D.C.):

The Court approves the proposed method of dissemination of notice set forth in the Notice Plan, Exhibit 1 to the Settlement Agreement. The Notice Plan meets the requirements of due process and is the best notice practicable under the circumstances. This method of Class Action Settlement notice dissemination is hereby approved by the Court.

Judge Louis J. Farina, Soders v. General Motors Corp., (December 19, 2008) No. CI-00-04255 (C.P. Pa.):

The Court has considered the proposed forms of Notice to Class members of the settlement and the plan for disseminating Notice, and finds that the form and manner of notice proposed by the parties and approved herein meet the requirements of due process, are the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constitute sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice.

Judge Robert W. Gettleman, In Re Trans Union Corp., (September 17, 2008) MDL No. 1350 (N.D. Ill.):

The Court finds that the dissemination of the Class Notice under the terms and in the format provided for in its Preliminary Approval Order constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances, is due and sufficient notice for all purposes to all persons entitled to such notice, and fully satisfies the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the requirements of due process under the Constitution of the United States, and any other applicable law...Accordingly, all objections are hereby OVERRULED.

Judge William G. Young, In re TJX Companies, (September 2, 2008) MDL No. 1838 (D. Mass.):

The form, content, and method of dissemination of notice provided to the Settlement Class were adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice, as given, provided valid, due, and sufficient notice of the proposed settlement, the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and these proceedings to all Persons entitled to such notice, and said Notice fully satisfied the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 and due process.

Judge David De Alba, Ford Explorer Cases, (May 29, 2008) JCCP Nos. 4226 & 4270 (Cal. Super. Ct.):

[T]he Court is satisfied that the notice plan, design, implementation, costs, reach, were all reasonable, and has no reservations about the notice to those in this state and those in other states as well, including Texas, Connecticut, and Illinois; that the plan that was approved -- submitted and approved, comports with the fundamentals of due process as described in the case law that was offered by counsel.

Judge Kirk D. Johnson, Hunsucker v. American Standard Ins. Co. of Wisconsin, (August 10, 2007) No. CV-2007-155-3 (Cir. Ct. Ark.):

Having admitted and reviewed the Affidavits of Carla Peak and Christine Danielson concerning the success of the notice campaign, including the fact that written notice reached approximately 86% of the potential Class Members, the Court finds that it is unnecessary to afford a new opportunity to request exclusion to individual class members who had an earlier opportunity to request exclusion but failed to do so...Specifically, the Court received and admitted affidavits from Carla Peak and Christine Danielson, setting forth the scope and results of the notice campaign. Based on the Court's review of the evidence admitted and argument of counsel, the Court finds and concludes that the Class Notice and settlement website as disseminated to members of the Settlement Class in accordance with provisions of the Preliminarily Approval Order was the best notice practicable under the circumstances to all members of the Settlement Class.
